Letter from the Director

Welcome to the Inaugural Evanston Art Walk – a juried exhibition of artwork by Illinois artists displayed in merchant windows along Central Street in Evanston, IL throughout the month of October 2008. Please join me in thanking the merchants for displaying the artwork; and the Central Street – Evanston Business Association for their support. Special thanks goes to the Evanston Art Walk Committee Members and Lynn Bednar at Walsh Natural Health. This Art Walk is made possible through the generous support of our participating merchants, sponsors, donors and volunteers who donated their time, goods and services to help make the Art Walk a special event; especially Taylor Street for hosting the Art Walk benefit reception and to Whole Foods Market – Evanston and Casteel Coffee for providing healthy and delicious treats. In this fragile economy, we appreciate your financial support. We would like to make the Evanston Art Walk an annual event. Please support the businesses who support us and please join us in continuing to celebrate Illinois' talented artists.

Debra Hatchett,
Director

Nancie King Mertz. Juror

Nancie received a BFA in Painting from the University of Illinois - Urbana; a MA in Painting, from Eastern Illinois University - Charleston (also a 3 year Faculty Instructor of Art.) She has studied privately with American masters: Schmid, Silverman, Shapiro, Gerhartz, Burdick, Aspevig, Daily and Auster. Her award-winning work has graced magazine covers & catalogs, has been featured in national art magazines, and published as posters for many Chicago fund-raising events. Pure Color: The Best of Pastel & Best of America Pastels are books recently released that include her work. She is a member of the Oil Painters of America, Chicago Plein Air Painters, and a signature member of Pastel Society of America and Chicago Pastel Painters. Nancie is owner of ArtDeTriumph & Artful Framer Studios, a custom framing and fine art studio, est. 1979. She was named "Artist of the Year 2005-2006 & 2006-2007" by the Chicago Convention & Tourism Bureau and "Business Person of the Year 2008" by Chicago's Lincoln Park Chamber of Commerce.

Alan Leder, recipient of the Supporter of the Arts Award

Alan Leder has a BFA in Painting from Northern Illinois University and an MFA in Sculpture and Filmmaking from the School of the Art Institute of Chicago. He has been a practicing artist for over 40 years, presently focusing on digital photography and mixed media. He has taught photography, filmmaking and film history at Columbia College, Elmhurst College and University of Illinois, Chicago.

Alan has curated and juried exhibitions for college and university galleries and, most recently at the Evanston Art Center. Curated exhibits include: "Inside the Box-A Shoebox Show" Parkland College (2005) "Richard Loving – Paintings" (2006, EAC) "Obsessive Explosive" (2006, EAC), Corey Postiglione-Works on Paper" (2008, EAC). Projects in development include, "Without Borders- A Global Perspective"(2009, EAC). Alan has served on Fellowship juries and has conducted graduate critiques in ceramics, painting, photography, video and computer generative systems at various colleges and universities in Illinois and across the US.

Alan was Asst. Visual Arts Director and Coordinator of Chicago's Percent for Art Program at the Chicago Dept. of Cultural Affairs, and for 18 years, the State Director for Visual Arts Programs at the Illinois Arts Council. Since 2003 he has been the Executive Director of the Evanston Art Center. He is a resident of Evanston, IL.
